Chapter Reflection Guide

The Mission of God and the Witness of the Church
By Justin A. Schell (Crossway, 2024)

After reading each chapter, take time to reflect on the following questions. Work to answer each one with a thoughtful paragraph, drawing on both the chapter and Scripture where appropriate.

1. What is one new insight or idea you learned from this chapter?
   Explain what stood out to you, why it was new or significant, and how it expanded or challenged your understanding.

2. What passage of Scripture best helped clarify or reinforce the main theme of this chapter?
   Describe the passage, explain how it connects to the author's argument, and why you found it especially meaningful.

3. How has this chapter shaped or deepened your understanding of God and His mission?
   Reflect on any ways your perspective has grown, been challenged, or been strengthened as you considered the chapter's teaching.

4. What is one idea from this chapter that you want to continue thinking, praying, or studying further?
   Explain why this particular concept deserves more reflection and what questions or implications it raises for you.

5. What question are you still wrestling with after reading this chapter?
   Describe something that remains unclear, intriguing, or unresolved, and explain why you think it is an important question to continue exploring.
